COMMENT FROM UNDERDEVELOPED COUNTRIES

1. Nehru speech of 12 May attacking Soviet Bloc campaign to interfere in Yugoslav internal affairs.
2. 2 June editions of Hindustan Times, New Delhi, and Indian Express, Delhi (also published simultaneously in Bombay and Madras.) Hindustan Times cited Soviet act as warning to Yugoslavia and other neutral countries that "Soviet aid carries political strings." The article went on to state that Moscow "seems bent on pulling the invisible strings of economic aid to realize its political ambitions in Yugoslavia." The Indian Express article declared that the Soviet action "has proved that Moscow demands complete subservience."
3. 6 June edition of Times of India contained editorial strongly criticizing the USSR for welshing on its credit agreement with Yugoslavia.
